

Seminar series on the US role in global politics

Past seminars 2015

30 January 2015: Harri Mikkola, Senior Research Fellow (FIIA) & Juha Käpylä, Research Fellow (FIIA): “The United States and the Arctic”.

13 March 2015: Vesa Vares, Professor of Political History (University of Turku): “America as a stranger and a friend. The Image of the United States in Finland during the 20th century”.

10 April 2015: Ville Sinkkonen, Doctoral Student (Faculty of Law, International Law), University of Turku: Norm Promoters: Comparing US and EU Reactions to the “Arab Spring”.

20 May 2015: Martti Myllylä, Ministerial Adviser (Ministry of Employment and the Economy): “Framing the Finnish Economic Competitiveness Discussion. What Does the U.S. Grand Strategy Search Teach Us?”

29 October 2015: Programme Director Mika Aaltola (FIIA) & Senior Research Fellow Charly Salenius-Pasternak (FIIA): “Contemporary US foreign policy priorities”.

13 November 2015: Researcher Ville Kaitila (ETLA, The Research Institute of the Finnish Economy): “Economic Effects of a Transatlantic Partnership”.

4 December 2015: Ph.D. Candidate Teemu Mäkinen (University of Tampere) will speak about “Congress and American Foreign Policy – National Defence Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2015 and its Implications”.