

FINNISH INSTITUTE
OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

CUSPP: THE 7th HELSINKI SUMMER SESSION 2020

2-3 September 2020
Webinar

In 2020 the 7th Helsinki Summer Session was organised as three webinars because of the Covid-19 pandemic at the same time the Summer session saw the launch of the new webinar series "Transatlantic currents" which is a monthly webinar featuring American experts of political science and international relations. The series will cover a wide array of timely topics from foreign policy to domestic issues.

PROGRAMME:

1st webinar

Great-Power Competition and the Rising US-China Rivalry: Towards a New Normal?

Wednesday 2 September 2020, at 16:00 - 17:15

Speakers: Deborah McCarthy, Fellow, Harvard University

James J. Przystup, Senior Research Fellow, Institute for National Strategic Studies

Liselotte Odgaard, Visiting Senior Fellow, Hudson Institute

Chair: Bart Gaens, Senior Research Fellow, FIIA

Programme continues

2nd webinar:

Great-Power Politics and Covid-19

Thursday 3 September 2020, at 10:00 - 11:15

Speakers: Michael Cox, Professor, Director LSE Ideas, LSE

Daniela Schwarzer, Director, DGAP

Comments: Carla Norrlof, Visiting Research Professor, FIIA

Chair: Mika Aaltola, Director, FIIA

3rd webinar:

The future of American foreign and security policy

Thursday 3 September 2020, at 16:00 - 17:15

Opening remarks: Maria Annala, Visiting Research Fellow, FIIA

Speakers: James Carafano, Expert, Heritage Foundation
Vice President, Kathryn and Shelby Cullom Davis Institute for National Security and Foreign Policy

Kathleen Doherty, Chief Strategy Officer, Annenberg Foundation
Trust at Sunnylands

Chair: Deborah McCarthy, Fellow, Harvard University